WHEREAS, for many years Bill worked as a union lithographer for Midwest Lithography, retiring in

WHEREAS, June and Bill's children still rave about their mother's delicious meals that they continue to enjoy today; and,

WHEREAS, once the Swope children were all off to school, June worked in accounting at Cartwright Van Lines until she retired in 1996; and,

WHEREAS, during their retirement, Bill and June enjoy gardening, shopping for antiques, spending time with family, and traveling to the lake and across the country, especially winter stays in Florida sitting on the beach to watch the sunrise and sunset; and,

WHEREAS, Bill and June are devout in their Catholic faith, proud of their large family, and look forward to celebrating their seventieth wedding anniversary with a special event in February at Libations in Lee's Summit, Missouri; and,

WHEREAS, Bill and June's children, Dianne (David) Studer, Susanne (Michael) McCambridge, Daniel J. Swope, Juliann (John) O'Gara, and Steven J.
