REQUEST SUMMARY	Teens in Transition is a life-skills based employment program for a select group identified by the KC NoVA police audit as already engaging in or being at high risk for exposure to criminal violence with some facing gun charges. They are diverse in age, gender and gang affiliation. Building upon the success of 2015, the group anticipates expanding its' program to 40 participants. These participants will attend a ten (10) week summer program for approximately 11 hours per week. The goal of the program is to provide a safe, stable and healthy environment for the participant to gain

	the appropriate life skills training and to reduce barriers to lead to their personal success while decreasing their risk of committing a violent act. Additional funding for this program is received from the City, of Kansas City, Missouri.
