There are no other agencies in Lee's Summit that provide free afterschool activities or tutoring for at-risk teenagers.

Compare your programs and results to others working in the same field.

Evidence has shown that youth who participate in after school programs reduce risky behaviors, promote physical health, and provide a safe and supportive environment for children and youth. Positive youth development is an intentional, pro-social approach that engages youth within their communities, peer groups, and families in a manner that is productive and constructive. Pro Deo will focus prevention services to educate youth on social skills that promote confidence and honesty in order to better prepare them to resist negative peer pressures.

Date Program was Initiated: 2022

What time period does this program run: All Year

Provide program description: Pro Deo will deliver a variety of interventions during after-school and summer hours. A portion of the project covers supervision of the teens while they are involved in the activities at the teen center or on field trips. Supervision is key to running any teen center free from incidents. While we get teens through the doors of Pro Deo by offering fun activities, at our core we are about preventing teens from doing harm to themselves or harm to others. We teach them to advocate for their own health and welfare.

Describe the benefits of this program to Jackson County Missouri: Pro Deo believes youth mental health equity starts with intention. When we build confidence in youth; they see that they have abilities beyond their imagination and this benefits everyone. All our services are offered free to families seeking our assistance so no one is ever left out based on their income status. Because our services are offered at no cost to participants, we seek grant funding to help pay for tutoring, activities, events, programming, our learning garden, meals and mental health counseling.

Describe target population to be served: Pro Deo's service population is a subset of approximately 150 teenagers in eastern Jackson County, primarily Lee's Summit, who register for our prevention services. The 2022 demographics of the teens were as follows: Gender 49.4% female; 42.5% male; 8% non-binary. Race White 63.2%; Black or African American 20.7%; Pacific Islander 1.1%; Hispanic or Latinx 3.5%; Multi-racial 11.5%. Approximately 40% are free/reduced lunch status as classified by the Lee's Summit School District and reported to Pro Deo.

What are the qualifications for participants: The only qualification for teens to register is to be enrolled in high school, either online or in person. The registration process does require teens to adhere to a code of conduct. All services offered at Pro Deo are defined by inclusion, diversity, and equity. Our teens are accepted regardless of their beliefs, gender identity or income status.

Check if your services are available to anyone: Yes

How do you maintain a database of participants: Apricot by Social Solutions

Number of participants from Jackson County: 150

Number of participants from Other Areas: 0

Total Number of participants: 150

Identify the community need for your organization's program and services in Jackson County.

There are so few resources or places for teenagers who are not involved in school activities to go during after school hours. There is a need for free counseling and tutoring services like those provided by Pro Deo. Our teens have a mental health specialist (social worker) available at no cost. Whatever they are going through with their peers, families, school; we help them learn coping strategies and to know they are not alone.
