4 HEARINGS

Todd Schuler, Audit Manager with the Missouri State Auditor's Office, and Tessa Rusatsi, Senior Auditor, presented information related to an audit of Jackson County. Todd Schuler said that while the scope of the audit is not fully determined, he anticipates the review to be a performance audit covering procurement, spending, and contracting for the two-year period ending December 31, 2018. He said the Auditor's Office will review internal controls and compliance with the Charter, County ordinances, and Missouri state laws. Mr. Schuler stated that they typically look at the decision-making process, documentation, and internal controls. He said that his staff will produce more than one audit report. As the field work is completed he will maintain communication with personnel to avoid any surprises. He said that Tessa will complete a preliminary report, he will review that report with State Auditor Nicole Galloway, meet in closed session with the Legislature, and include any responses from those meetings into the final document.

Mr. Schuler said that at this point he cannot estimate the cost for the audit, but as a scope is developed he will move forward with an engagement letter and Memorandum of Understanding with the estimated costs. The audit will not be complete until well into 2019 and possibly 2020. His office is open to listening to any concerns from the Legislature or citizens and he urges anyone with appropriate information to contact his office at www.auditor.mo.gov or call the hotline at 1-800-347-8597 or his office at 573-751-4213.
