Community Infrastructure

Other organizations in the community that provide the same or similar services as your organization.

CASA is the only 501c3 program in Jackson County with a court order from the family court to provide a caring, well-trained volunteer and staff advocacy team to intervene, advocate and help monitor children's progress under the protection of the court. CASA partners with the court's internal Office of Guardian ad Litem to provide advocacy for children in care.

Compare your programs and results to others working in the same field.

Research on CASA's intervention has proven that children and youth with the support of a CASA program spend less time in the child welfare system, have increased positive outcomes related to their medical, educational, and therapeutic goals, and are more likely to achieve a permanent home. CASA is mandated by Family Court to advocate for all the needs of children in care including all health related needs and wants.

List all partnerships you have with other organizations along with the nature of the partnership.

Because we serve primarily foster youth, CASA partners with any agencies that offer services to children in care. These include: The Children's Place, MOCASA, Foster Adopt Connect, Cornerstones of Care and Great Circle, Children's Mercy Hospital, Truman Medical, Hope House, New House, Rose Brooks, Mattie Rhodes, and Jewish Family Services.
