Black Achievers Dinner

---

Proposed Program

Detail functions to be performed.

African-Americans who have achieved in business and industry are recognized and presented as positive role models in the community. These individuals are nominated by their respective employers for their contributions to their companies and the communities in which they live. Once inducted into the Black Achiever's Society the award recipients work with high school and junior high students as role models to encourage them to pursue post secondary educations as well as careers in business and industry. The mentorship relationships are fostered to reduce violence and expose the negative affects of illegal drugs.

Why is this a priority for your agency?

It is designed to increase diversity in management positions. The lack of diversity in high level (decision making) positions is a national problem.

Check if this program is sustainable without Jackson County's funding.

Section C 2016 Program Information

Agency Name:

Southern Christian Leadership Conference of Greater Kansas City

Program:

Mass Celebration

Proposed Program

Detail functions to be performed.

The Mass Celebration is designed to promote unity among the many religious denominations in Kansas City and Jackson County, Missouri. The service emphasizes non-violent solutions to differences across religious, racial and ethnic lines. Nationally known gospel artist and speakers are brought in to address an ecumenical service. The service is designed to promote understanding among differing religious faiths. An individual from Kansas City, Jackson County Community is selected and recognized for his/her contribution to the promotion of religious and racial tolerance.

Why is this a priority for your agency?

This program is particularly important and has a very high priority to promote tolerance and appreciation among all religions and faiths including Christian, Muslim and Jewish communities. It is particularly relevant at this time in this community.
