County promises and covenants to make its best efforts to appropriate funds in accordance with this Agreement. Such certificates shall provide that the applicable insurance policies have been endorsed to provide a minimum of thirty days advance notice to the County in the event of cancellation, non-renewal, or reduction in limits by endorsement.

14. Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence January 1, 2020, and shall continue until December 31, 2020, unless sooner terminated pursuant to paragraph 8, 15, or 19 hereof. If this Agreement is terminated by either party, the County shall pay only for those services actually performed by Organization as verified by the County's audit.

15. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated for any reason or no reason by either of the parties upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the other party's designated fiscal representative. Date Program was Initiated: 2010

What time period does this program run: All Year

Provide program description: To advance the mission of healing and self-sufficiency for homeless children and families, Sheffield Place offers four fully-integrated programs: 1) Residential Housing Services - Each family has a private living unit with a private bath (14 units have a maximum capacity of one mother and five children; three units have a maximum capacity of a mother and two children). Families share kitchens and a common laundry room. Families with income pay one-third of their adjusted income as a program fee; mothers without income perform an additional chore. 2) Residential Clinical Services - This highly-structured program provides: an hour of therapy and an hour of case management each week along with the requirement that mothers participate in a minimum of 15 hours of psycho-educational and therapy groups each week of the 30 hours offered. Residents are required to observe a nightly curfew; do daily chores; and be employed, in school, or actively seeking employment. Children take part in therapeutic programming as well. 3) Aftercare Clinical Services - Families in aftercare receive case management services in their homes along with other supportive services for as long as needed without charge. Families may return to the facility for therapy and psycho-social groups. Families in aftercare take part in the agency's quarterly social events. 4) Permanent Housing Services - Families receive supportive services through the aftercare program. Sheffield Place currently operates 10 units of permanent housing. Families pay adjusted rent and all utilities.

Describe the benefits of this program to Jackson County Missouri: Sheffield Place's mission is to help high barrier homeless families become self-sufficient. By helping families become stronger and self-supporting, the community becomes stronger through employed, tax paying citizens. Improving the lives of families also helps with improvement in neighborhoods & the community through the creation of engaged, voting citizens. Sheffield Place helps prevent crime by working with offenders, renovating vacant homes to improve neighborhoods, and being a positive presence in the community. The program teaches life skills, helps mothers secure and maintain employment which helps break the cycle of homelessness & poverty.

Describe target population to be served: Sheffield Place serves families that struggle with multiple barriers to achieving self-sufficiency. The mothers at Sheffield Place demonstrate the pervasive, negative effects of severe trauma. Nearly all have addiction issues and a mental health diagnosis – most commonly post-traumatic stress disorder, depression, bi-polar, adjustment, or anxiety disorder. The mothers grew up living with addiction, violence, homelessness, and poverty. For many this is a generational cycle. Without intervention, these families will remain in the generational cycle of addiction, poverty and homelessness. They will suffer from a lifetime of adverse mental and physical health outcomes and have lives cut short by as much as three decades. (Adverse Childhood Experiences Study, Felitti, Andra, et al., 1998; <http://www.nimh.nih.gov/about/director/2011/no-health-without-mental-health.shtml>) The National Institute of Drug Addiction's Substance Abuse in Women (June 2019) found that issues impacting women include "hormones, menstrual cycle, fertility, pregnancy, breastfeeding, and menopause. In addition, women themselves describe unique reasons for using drugs, including controlling weight, fighting exhaustion, coping with pain, and attempts to self-treat mental health problems. It was also found that • Women often use substances differently than men, such as using smaller amounts of certain drugs for less time before they become addicted. • Women can respond to substances differently. For example, they may have more drug cravings and may be more likely to relapse after treatment. • Sex hormones can make women more sensitive than men to the effects of some drugs. • Women who use drugs may also experience more physical effects on their heart and blood vessels. • Brain changes in women who use drugs can be different from those in men. • Women may be more likely to go to the emergency room or die from overdose or other effects of certain substances. • Women who are victims of domestic violence are at increased risk of substance use. • Divorce, loss of child custody, or the death of a partner or child can trigger women's substance use or other mental health disorders. • Women who use certain substances may be more likely to have panic attacks, anxiety, or depression." Timely, evidence-based treatment that address the specific needs of women will empower them to end the generational cycle of homelessness, poverty, addiction, and abuse and lead healthy, productive, and self-sufficient lives. These services will be provided: • Recovery support services – including peer support and drug testing for residential and aftercare clients • Treatment services – group and individual for residential and aftercare clients • Clean, sober, safe supportive housing so that families may stabilize • Clean, sober, safe permanent supportive housing

What are the qualifications for participants: Families come to Sheffield Place from the street, homeless shelters, addiction recovery centers, domestic violence shelters, and increasingly from the internet. Homeless mother-led families needing the intensive addiction recovery, mental health, and life skills services the agency provides are admitted following an interview; families with less intensive needs receive referrals to appropriate services. The mother undergoes a drug test at admission and randomly thereafter. The mother does not have to be clean from alcohol and other drugs at admission, but she must begin recovery upon admission. Sheffield Place serves high-need homeless mothers with children.
