THIS AGREEMENT, made by and between JACKSON COUNTY, MISSOURI, a Constitutional Home Rule Charter County of the First Class of the State of Missouri, hereinafter referred to as "the County" and a Missouri not-for-profit corporation, METROPOLITAN ORGANIZATION TO COUNTER SEXUAL ASSAULT (MOCSA), 3100 BROADWAY, SUITE 400, KANSAS CITY, MO 64111 hereinafter referred to as "Organization".

Further, Organization agrees to establish and adopt such accounting standards and forms as recommended by the County prior to receipt of the County's first distribution of funds under the terms of this Agreement. The forms used to document expenditure of these funds may be changed from time to time by the County.

County promises and covenants to make its best efforts to appropriate funds in accordance with this Agreement. 13. Insurance. Organization shall maintain the following insurance coverage during the term of this Agreement.

B. Organization shall maintain, if any motor vehicles are used in the performance of the Services, Commercial General Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability insurance, and Automobile Liability insurance including owned, non-owned, or hired vehicles, each in a combined single limit of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) each occurrence for bodily injury and property damage liability.

Such certificates shall provide that the applicable insurance policies have been endorsed to provide a minimum of thirty days advance notice to the County in the event of cancellation, non-renewal, or reduction in limits by endorsement.

14. Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence January 1, 2023, and shall continue until December 31, 2023, unless sooner terminated pursuant to paragraph 8, 15, or 19 hereof. If this Agreement is terminated by either party, the County shall pay only for those services actually performed by Organization as verified by the County's audit.

15. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated for any reason or no reason by either of the parties upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the other party's designated fiscal representative. All services and payments shall continue through the effective date of termination. Community Infrastructure

Other organizations in the community that provide the same or similar services as your organization.

MOCSA is the only rape crisis center in the Kansas City metro area. No other organizations currently provide sexual violence crisis-line, prevention, and education programs in Jackson County. Child Protection Center is a child advocacy center in Jackson County. They provide forensic interviews and education for children, but not education or victim services for adult survivors of rape. Rosebrooks is a domestic violence shelter in Jackson County that provides dating violence, anger control, and substance abuse education in schools, but they do not provide similar programs to MOCSA.

Compare your programs and results to others working in the same field.

The World Health Organization identifies sexual violence as a main public health issue of the 21st century, so MOCSA uses a public health model to prevent and stop the health impacts of sexual trauma. Without help, sexual violence victims experience depression, anxiety, PTSD, opioid use, and suicidality. Adverse Childhood Experiences data (ACEs) shows sexual abuse is a predictor of early death. MOCSA's clients are more likely to get medical forensic exams and treatment for STDs spread by perpetrators. Our free crisis intervention improves clients' mental health and lowers trauma severity.

List all partnerships you have with other organizations along with the nature of the partnership.

MOCSA works in 8 Jackson school districts: Blue Springs, Center, Fort Osage, Grandview, Hickman Mills, Independence, Kansas City Public Schools, Lee's Summit—and charter schools. MOCSA provides Project Aware, Green Dot, Youth Led Prevention, and Youth Education and Outreach in these schools. We also provide community education for parents and school staff. MOCSA partners with KCPD, St. Luke's Hospital, Truman Medical Center, Children's Mercy, Child Protection Center, and many others to help victims, train first responders, and prevent sexual violence.

Date Program was Initiated: 2010

What time period does this program run: All Year

Provide program description: MOCSA's Education Department uses research-driven models to provide education, outreach, and prevention services to stop sexual violence and inform victims of their rights and services. Age-appropriate programming includes Project Aware for ages 4-11, Green Dot for middle schoolers, high school Youth-Led Prevention, and education presentations for both children and adults. Educators field disclosures of abuse from participants, and also serve on MOCSA's 24-hour crisis line--responding to victims at hospitals and police stations for help during exams and investigations.

Describe the benefits of this program to Jackson County Missouri: The lifetime cost of sexual assault is $138,264 per victim and $253,005 per child (CDC). But every $1 spent on prevention programs like MOCSA's saves $5 in treatment (Prevention Institute, 2012). Research shows children receiving programs like ours are six times more likely to show protective behaviors, half as likely to be the victims, and more likely to recover quickly if they are abused. Victims who receive crisis-line advocacy services have better experiences with law enforcement, are more likely to receive medical attention, and are more likely to have their cases investigated.

Describe target population to be served: MOCSA exists to improve the lives of those impacted by sexual abuse and assault and prevent sexual violence in our community. MOCSA is the only rape crisis center in the greater Kansas City region. Our target population for prevention/education includes the general population of Jackson County, ages 4 through elderhood. Programs for youth operate through grade 12; education for adults is 18+. Clients may be victims of sexual assault, rape, or child sexual abuse across the lifespan, and their loved ones. Over 42% are minorities and 55% experience poverty. All services are free of charge.

What are the qualifications for participants: Anyone who has been impacted by sexual violence may access victim services, and there are no specific requirements or eligibility criteria for participating in services. We do not serve offenders. MOCSA follows a victim-centered model that empowers and honors survivors' decisions, recognizing them as the experts in their own lives. We support when they seek help; we do not direct treatment. We serve regardless of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, ancestry, marital status, amnesty or veteran status.

Identify the community need for your organization's program and services in Jackson County.

One of every 10 children are sexually abused before age 18. One in 4 women and one in 10 men are victims of rape in their lifetime. This means 135,000 Jackson residents are at risk of sexual violence. Law (170.045 RSMo) now requires sexual abuse training for grades 6-12, driving demand for MOCSA. The majority of our services occur in Jackson County. In 2022, we answered 4,450 crisis line calls. We are seeing an anticipated wave of need for services as youth returned to normal school settings after 2 years of increased isolation. Disclosures have increased 185% between 2020-2022.
