Jeanie Lauer, County Legislator, asked what expectations Ms. Welch has in making a presentation to the County Legislature. She stated concerns of this nature and requests for them to be heard by the Legislature should be handled through the County Executive's Office and the process his office has in place to address them.

Ms. Welch responded since the Legislature is responsible for funding departments, they should know when there are problems that may affect how that funding is being used or not used properly. Her organization is following every process up to arbitration to get their concerns heard. They exuded unheard of amounts of political pressure just to get a safety committee meeting that is included in their contracts. They attended and presented at the request of a legislator. When looking at the budget she sees the County Legislature appropriated money for the department and it needs to be used as intended.

Megan L. Smith, County Legislator, asked for a copy of the MOU currently in place with the SEIU.

DaRon McGee asked her to email the MOU to all legislators along with the PowerPoint presentation she presented today.

Megan L. Smith asked about the grievance and arbitration process and have these issues been made known in accordance with the MOU. Rose Welch responded that none of the issues included in the grievance process were talked about today. These issues are ones that they do not have the right or ability to file a grievance about because the employer has control over processes, procurement and procedures. She stated they have an unusually high number of grievances which can be expensive.

Donna Peyton, County Legislator, asked about the safety committee mentioned in the presentation. Discussion regarding the safety committee and its composition. Ms. Welch said the committee has a meeting scheduled to be held on August 21, 2025.

Sean E. Smith, County Legislator, said he would like the Administration to provide the County Legislature with a plan of how employees can be safer at work. He also asked for a list of recommendations from Ms. Welch. He said hopefully the public will get on board if it is a pervasive problem in other county departments so county employees can have the safest workplace possible.

Ms. Welch said employees need to feel heard. She said this forum is a moderate next step as some wanted to go to the press. She said they want good cooperation and work relations. County employees have a shared mission because they care about Jackson County.

Mr. Smith said this discussion has given him ideas to modify his ordinance regarding whistle blowers.

Resolution 21942 was adopted at this time. See page 12 for details.
