DEPARTMENT: Legislature

TITLE: Creation of the World Cup Legislative Committee

SUMMARY: The 2026 FIFA World Cup will include matches played within the Jackson County Sports Complex. This event presents a significant opportunity for economic growth, tourism, community development, and international visibility for Jackson County. To ensure that all areas of the county benefit from hosting these matches, and that the Jackson County Legislature remains informed and actively involved throughout the process, a World Cup Legislative Committee shall be established. The purpose of this committee is to identify opportunities, develop solutions, and advance goals related to the planning, execution, and legacy of the World Cup matches in Jackson County. The committee will work to ensure that the Legislature stays engaged in all aspects of preparation, operations, and follow-up activities connected to the event
