The forms used to document expenditure of these funds may be changed from time to time by the County.

8. Default. If Organization shall default in the performance or observation of any covenant, term or condition herein contained to be performed by Organization, the County shall give Organization ten days written notice, setting forth the default. County promises and covenants to make its best efforts to appropriate funds in accordance with this Agreement. In the

10. Conflict Of Interest. Organization warrants that no officer or employee of the County, whether elected or appointed, shall, in any manner whatsoever, be interested in or receive any benefit from the profits or emoluments of this Agreement.

11. Severability. If any covenant or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, or incapable of being enforced by reason of any rule of law or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall, nevertheless, remain in full force and effect; and no covenant or provision shall be deemed dependent upon any other covenant or provision unless so expressed herein.

12. Indemnification. Organization shall indemnify, defend and hold the County harmless from any and all claims, liabilities, damages, and costs (including reasonable attorney's fees directly related thereto) including but not limited to violation of civil rights and/or bodily injury to or death of any person and for damage to or destruction of property if and to the extent caused by the negligence, willful misconduct or omissions of Organization during the performance of this Agreement.

Provide program description: Funding from Jackson County would be used to support recreational and youth development operational programming targeting youth in Western Jackson County by the Guadalupe Centers (GC). Specifically, funds from Jackson County would be utilized to support the operation of the Guadalupe Centers Youth Recreation Facility and to support GC youth recreation programming. This facility is located on the corner of 27th and Belleview in the Westside community. It is being completely renovated to house all of the organized athletics and after school and summer school staff. This building will be dedicated completely to the need of the youth the Guadalupe Centers serves. Additional funding secured by GC is utilized to support part time staff who oversee and coach in the organized athletic program that consists of the following leagues; soccer, baseball, football, volleyball, and basketball. GC Youth Recreation Building will also be utilized for other youth activities that promote safe alternatives including teen nights, dances and overnight lock-ins. GC youth development staff will oversee activities that will take place in the facility and in the Gymnasium across the street at the Guadalupe Centers Middle School. Staff will also coordinate all summer enrichment camp activities for "tweens" (ages 10 - 14) out of this facility. The Agency runs its youth program in accordance with the Youth Program Standards promoted and supported by United Way. Following these standards all staff and volunteers working with youth must pass criminal background checks and child/abuse and neglect background checks. Staff must also receive training in principles of youth development and first aid. Youth facilities and youth recreation programming in the western half of Jackson County is extremely limited. GC programs are among the few that receive county funds for these types of services and the agency has been expanding youth services to meet increasing needs in the Northeast and Eastside communities. GC collaborates and partners with others including KCMO Parks and Recreation, Whatsoever, and Della Lamb. These partnerships are beneficial in enhancing youth services provided to underserved neighborhoods in Western Jackson County.

Describe the benefits of this program to Jackson County Missouri: Youth facilities and youth recreation programming in the western half of Jackson County is extremely limited. GC programs are among the few that receive county funds for these types of services and the agency has been expanding youth services to meet increasing needs in the Northeast and Eastside communities. These youth that will be served would have an empty house to come home to if the center is not open to receive them when they are out of school. Statistics show that the time kids are most vulnerable are between 3 pm and 6pm. Also with these kids participating in a variety of organized athletics activities we can insure that these youth are in healthy organized activity with caring adults. The more time we can fill for these youth in those critical hours the less time we leave them to get in trouble or be harmed by someone.

Describe target population to be served: The main target population for this program are Latino and urban youth from Western Jackson County. Many of the participants and/or their families are limited English proficient. The programs provided by the Youth Development Program target a wide variety of ages in sports programming that serves youth in beginners leagues for children ages 4 to 6 years of age, and regular leagues for children ages 10 and under, 12 and under, 14 and under, middle school, and high school. Teen diversion groups are established for participating youth 14 to 18. Social and educational programs for the tween segment ages 9 - 14.

What are the qualifications for participants: The Agency runs its youth program in accordance with the Youth Program Standards promoted and supported by United Way. Following these standards all staff and volunteers working with youth must pass criminal background checks and child/abuse and neglect background checks. Staff must also receive training in principles of youth development and first aid. In addition all volunteer coaches are very competent and very qualified coaches in their perspective sports.
