Dear Dr. Daniels-Young:

On Saturday, April 9th, 2016, from 6:00 -10:00 PM., Communities Creating Opportunity (CCO) is hosting its annual Soul of the City event at the College Basketball Experience located next to the Sprint Center in downtown Kansas City in the Power and Light District. This event celebrates the amazing volunteers and leaders working to build a Kansas City where everyone has the opportunity to thrive. Our theme this year is, "CCO's Full Court Press for Human Dignity". This year, we will honor five of the communities' leaders for their extraordinary commitment to our community.

For almost 39 years, CCO has been working to improve the lives of residents in Missouri and Kansas. Originally founded to address racial equity and economic disparities in Kansas City's urban core, we now recognize that the health of our community can improve by working with our leaders on violence prevention and crime. While the geography in which we focus has grown, our commitment to being a champion for all residents in our region has remained steadfast. Whether working to expand access to healthcare or working to eradicate racial disparities and crime, we are deeply focused on the issues that matter most to residents across the region.

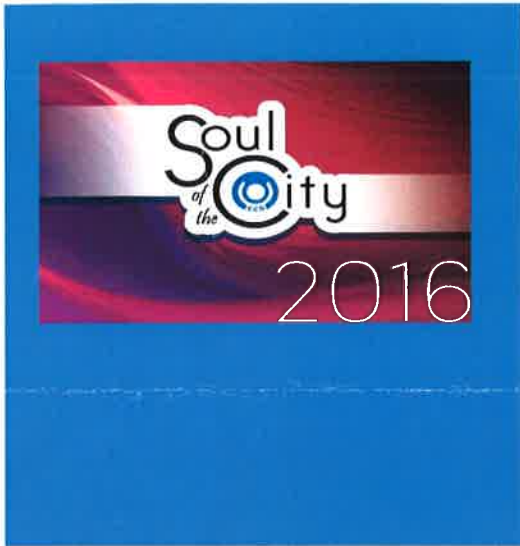

Join us for an evening filled with great food, entertainment dancing by being a sponsor this year. Your sponsorship helps us to advance our work of moving human dignity to the center of public life. Each package includes tickets to the event and advertising space in our program booklet. You can submit a sponsorship by completing and returning the enclosed form or by submitting directly through our link <http://soulofthecity2016.eventbrite.com>. You can also reach me at 816-221-9900x107 or via email at Marquita@cco.org.

Sincerely,

Marquita Taylor, Fundraising Manager

CCO brings people of all faiths together to build relationships, develop strong leaders, and improve the quality of life in our communities.

I think this is something COMBAT would like to support—we have worked with CCO in the past and the organization has supported our events.
Could we do a sponsorship of $500 for a ½ page ad? We don't have any tickets to the event.
