REQUEST SUMMARY	The Economic Development Department of Jackson County partners with the Eastern Jackson County Development Alliance to bring together the communities of Eastern Jackson County. Alliance members pool resources knowing that economic development in one of their communities will have benefits that extend to other communities. The Alliance represents the County's commitment to progress with a sense of cooperation rather than competition amongst the members. Part of the County's commitment to the Alliance is sharing in the cost of Xceligent, a leading software provider of verified commercial real estate information. Attached for your approval is an invoice for service provided from July 1, 2014-October 1, 2014.
