IN THE COUNTY LEGISLATURE OF JACKSON COUNTY, MISSOURI

A RESOLUTION designating the week of April 18-24, 1999, as National County Government Week in Jackson County, Missouri.
RESOLUTION # 12659, April 12, 1999

INTRODUCED BY Victor E. Callahan, County Legislator

WHEREAS, Americans place great faith in the county form of government, which traces its roots to the earliest days of the republic; and,

WHEREAS, county government truly supports the nation's citizens, serving as their voice in town squares, state houses, and the White House; and,

WHEREAS, Jackson County is proud to be among the counties proving that local solutions can be applied throughout America to solve many of the nation's most important challenges; and,

WHEREAS, Jackson County's primary concern is to assure that its citizens and their families live in a community that is safe, strong, and rich in culture; and,

WHEREAS, the arts, government, and community history go hand in hand in providing stability and well-being to all county citizens; and,

WHEREAS, community leaders, county leaders, and all citizens should take steps to recognize all that is good within Jackson County, and encourage others to experience it as well; and,

WHEREAS, the National Association of Counties has designated the week of April 18 24, 1999 as "National County Government Week" with a theme of "Counties Celebrate the Arts"; and,

WHEREAS, as part of its celebration, Jackson County will sponsor a Free Sidewalk Art Event for Kids at the City Market, Saturday April 24th, starting at 8 a.m.; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the County Legislature of Jackson County, Missouri, that the Legislature hereby designates the week of April 18-24, 1999, as National County Government Week in Jackson County, Missouri.

Effective Date: This Resolution shall be effective immediately upon its passage by a majority of the Legislature.
