WHEREAS, the Office of Human Relations and Citizen Complaints ("OHRCC Office") and the OHRCC Commission ("Commission") were created by the Jackson County Home Rule Charter; and,

- meetings per year shall have forfeited his office;
- 2) A member's attendance at a meeting of the Commission shall be satisfied by answering present at the roll call of scheduled and properly noticed meetings, but that if said member leaves the meeting before its adjournment and the Commission then fails to take any action due to the lack of a quorum, the member who has left the meeting shall be counted as absent for the entire meeting;
 - 3) The compensation of the members of the Commission should be increased to the sum of $100.00 per meeting for a total not to exceed $1,200.00 per year;
 - 4) The Commission should request a budget allowance of up to $5,000.00 annually for retaining independent legal counsel for the Commission when deemed appropriate by a majority of the Commission or County Counselor;
 - 5) The Commission or the Director of the OHRCC office should provide a monthly report to the Jackson County Legislature and the County Executive no later than the tenth (10th) day of each month beginning June, 2005, containing a brief statement of facts of each complaint received during the preceding month and action, if any, taken on each complaint until such complaint is resolved and, if so, whether such complaint was ruled justified or unjustified;
 - 6) Every complainant shall be invited to complete a "satisfaction form" to be completed and returned in a postage paid envelope addressed to the County Auditor who shall report to the Legislature the results no later than the tenth (10th) day of each month for the preceding month; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the County Legislature urges the Commission to review the operation of the OHRCC Office and utilization of staff by the Commission, and to replace the staff or Director of the OHRCC Office if deemed appropriate to improve the operation and image of the OHRCC Office; and,
