RESOLUTION NO. 20585, December 7, 2020

INTRODUCED BY Dan Tarwater III, County Legislator

WHEREAS, the Legislature, in accordance with an engagement letter dated March 6, 2019, did request the Missouri State Auditor to conduct a comprehensive audit of the COMBAT tax pursuant to section 29.200.3, RSMo; and,

WHEREAS, the Missouri State Auditor's report on that office's COMBAT findings concluded the percentages of COMBAT estimated revenues allocated to the various county departments and/or outside entities have not been updated since 1995, when Resolution 10950, dated September 5,

1995, was adopted; and,

WHEREAS, the Auditor's report further stated that all funding provided from the Anti-Crime Sales Tax (COMBAT) Fund should be authorized in an updated resolution or ordinance setting out the funding percentages for each department, agency, and/or initiative so that no department, agency, or initiative receives more funding than authorized; and,

WHEREAS, Ordinance 5440, dated November 2, 2020, currently under consideration by the Anti-Crime Committee of the Legislature, sets out certain requirements related to the annual adoption of the Anti-Crime Sales Tax Fund, including the requirement that the annual percentage distribution be reviewed no later than December 31, 2024, and no less often than every four years thereafter; and,

WHEREAS, it is the express intent and commitment of the Legislature to review said percentages set forth in Ordinance 5440 prior to the adoption of the County's 2022 annual budget; now therefore,
