IN THE COUNTY LEGISLATURE OF JACKSON COUNTY, MISSOURI

A RESOLUTION commending Blue Springs High School Volleyball Coach Charlie Bock upon receiving the Peggy Johnson Award for lifetime achievement from the Missouri High School Volleyball Coaches Association.

RESOLUTION # 14039, February 25, 2002

INTRODUCED BY Terry Young, County Legislator

WHEREAS, on January 29, 2002, Charlie Bock, the veteran Blue Springs High School volleyball coach, has received the Peggy Johnson Award for lifetime achievement from the Missouri High School Volleyball Coaches Association; and,

WHEREAS, the award was named in memory of Peggy Johnson, a veteran volleyball coach whose career was cut short by a stroke; and,

WHEREAS, Coach Bock started his volleyball career 19 years ago in Alma, Missouri, where he led the Class 1A Santa Fe High School team to five consecutive state championships from 1983 through 1987; and,

WHEREAS, ironically it was Blue Springs South High School Head Volleyball Coach Jerry MacLean who talked Bock into coaching; and,

WHEREAS, "It was one of the best decisions of my life," said Coach Bock in an Independence
