RESOLUTION # 14973, April 12, 2004

INTRODUCED BY Dan Tarwater III and Scott Burnett, County Legislators

WHEREAS, Loring Henderson has spent the past ten years serving our community as the director of the Redemptorist Social Services Center, where he spearheaded an effort to expand both space and service to meet the needs of more than 1,300 persons seeking help each month; and,

WHEREAS, Loring's success as the director of Redemptorist Social Services Center was in part facilitated by his solid background in and dedication to public service in previous employment with the non-profit think tank, Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, working alongside former Clinton aide, George Stephanopoulos, and volunteering at soup kitchens and homeless shelters; and,

WHEREAS, during Loring's tenure, the Redemptorist Social Services Center was transformed from a parish-based food pantry and emergency assistance agency into a full social services center offering medical, legal, and other advice in partnership with eight other agencies; and,

WHEREAS, Loring Henderson plans to relax and enjoy the break from the daily 100-mile commute and will continue to serve his community and his faith by exploring new opportunities in providing assistance to the needy; therefore,
