RESOLUTION #11007, October 30, 1995

INTRODUCED BY Victor E. Callahan and Fred Arbanas, County Legislators

WHEREAS, Brian Mosier, a William Chrisman High School linebacker/tight end, suffered a serious injury this fall as a result of getting poked in the eye during an intra-squad game; and,

WHEREAS, Brian suffered a ruptured artery near the retina of his right eye, causing him to lose all vision, with the exception of some peripheral vision; and,

WHEREAS, Brian hasn't allowed his injury to cause him to give up on a sport which he loves and at which he is very successful and, through his own perseverance, strong family support, and the continual support of Chrisman Bears' coach, Joe Keeton, he has returned to the team on which he earned all-area and all-conference honors as a junior; and

WHEREAS, Brian scored the sole touchdown for the Bears on his first game back against Lee's Summit; now therefore,
