RESOLUTION # 12671, April 26, 1999

INTRODUCED BY Terry Young, County Legislator

WHEREAS, every individual, family, and community in America have the right to live free from fear and harm; and,

WHEREAS, while most crimes continued to decrease in our nation in 1998, Jackson County residents still experienced approximately 9,000 crimes of violence; and,

WHEREAS, over 30,000 federal and state laws have been passed that define and protect the rights of crime victims, with over 10,000 national, state, and local agencies today providing support and services to victims of crime; and,

WHEREAS, the voices of victims offer us important insights into the personal pain and loss that victims endure and are voices that deserve our attention and respect; and,

WHEREAS, during 1999 National Crime Victims' Rights Week, the powerful voices of victims and those who serve them will be commemorated with the theme "Victims' Voices: Silent No More"; and,

WHEREAS, we recognize the valuable contributions made this year, and every year, by crime victims and advocates who diligently promote justice for all, and offer strong voices for personal and public protection and safety; now therefore,
